Arizona Justice Center expands support

BY JOSHUA FENTY
Peoria Times Staff Writer

When Rhonda and Joe Charles founded the Arizona Justice Center roughly 10 years ago, the couple said they were moved by God to serve the voiceless and vulnerable of the city of Glendale and the larger West Valley.

After a decade of doing community work with individuals in difficult circumstances, helping them find the resources and aid they need, the founders are looking to next steps for how they can support more people across a larger area.

"It's all the Lord working through multiple people to accomplish the work — to be those hands and feet of Jesus and to be able to touch the lives of those people that we

The Arizona Justice Center is hosting its first fundraising event on Friday, Feb. 20 — a silent auction for items such as sports tickets and other special certificates. (Arizona Justice Center/Submitted)
